Spain's 2-0 win against Honduras puts them back in with a chance of moving to the knockout round. They wasted a lot of good scoring opportunities and could have won by a bigger margin. Barcelona-bound David Villa scored the first of his two goals in the 17th minute. He blasted a shot into the top corner to settle Spanish nerves. It was all Spain after that as wave after wave of attack hit the Honduran defense. Sergio Ramos missed a sitter from inside the six-yard box and another Villa strike hit the bar. It's amazing how it only finished 1-0 at half-time. The same story continued after the break with Spain's superstars guilty of missing chances that were begging to be scored. It was Villa who struck again when his shot was deflected in on 51 minutes. He had the chance of a hat-trick but missed a penalty.
