England booked their place in the last 16 with a very nervous 1-0 win against Slovenia. Coach Fabio Capello changed his line-up and started with popular forward Jermaine Defoe. His choice paid off as Defoe scored the winning goal after 22 minutes. He met a perfect cross from the wing by James Milner and blasted the ball past the 'keeper at close range. England should have scored three or four more goals. Frank Lampard missed a great chance in the first half and Wayne Rooney hit the post in the second. England continued to press for a second goal that would seal things for them but always kept their fans on the edge of their seats. A few late Slovenian attacks made English hearts stop. As the final whistle came, news arrived that the USA had scored against Algeria to send Slovenia home.
