THE READING

From <https://breakingnewsenglish.com/2010/201004-digital-nomad-0.html>

Caribbean islands are famous for luxury, not work. However the nation of Antigua and Barbuda wants people to work there for two years. It has a two-year work visa for "digital nomads". These are people who can work anywhere on their computer. The visa is for anyone who has an income of at least $50,000 per year.

Other countries have set up similar programmes. They want people to experience a different way of life. Antigua and Barbuda has many attractions, like high-speed Internet. Antigua has many activities. It has great accommodation, amazing restaurants, beaches, historic sites, beautiful scenery and deep sea diving.
