

Prince Charles to remarry (Fri 11 Feb)

WARM UPS

CHAT: Talk in pairs or groups about the Prince Charles / Princess Diana / British Royal scandal and gossip / Royal weddings / kings / wedding days / honeymoons...

To make things more dynamic, try telling your students they only have one minute (or 2) on each chat topic before changing topics / partners. Change topic / partner frequently to energize the class.

CHARLES BRAINSTORM: Spend one minute writing down all of the different words you associate with Prince Charles. Share your words with your partner / group and talk about them.

MY COUNTRY'S ROYALS: Talk to your partner / group about the Royal (or important) families in your country. What similarities / differences do they have with the British royals?

BEING A KING/QUEEN: Talk to your partner / group about being the king/queen of a country. Together, write down five advantages and five disadvantages of being a king/queen. Change partners / groups and share your advantages and disadvantages. Change a third or fourth time. Return to your original partner / group and explain what you heard from other students.

OPINIONS: Talk to your partner about the following opinions on the upcoming Royal wedding:

- a. It's wonderful news.
- b. Prince Charles should not marry Camilla because she will never be Princess Diana.
- c. I'm fed up with hearing about Charles and Camilla.
- d. Camilla should be able to become queen.
- e. Just another story about the crazy British Royal family.
- f. If Charles marries Camilla, he should not become king.
- g. It's terrible they have been in love since 1970.
- h. If two divorced people want to marry, whose business is it?
- i. I wish the happy couple all the best for their future together.
- j. If I were Princes William or Harry, I'd be really angry.
- k. Another person the British taxpayer has to give its money to. No thank you.
