THE ARTICLE

From http://www.BreakingNewsEnglish.com/1211/121109-china\_leadership.html

China's President Hu Jintao opened the Chinese Communist Party meeting on Wednesday in Beijing. The president and his team will choose the new leaders that will rule China for the next ten years. China selects its leaders, unlike many other countries, which elect them. The meeting will last for a week and will look at many issues that are important in China today. Perhaps the biggest topic at the meeting will be the economy. Ten years ago, China's economy was not so big. However, an economic miracle in the past decade means the country is now the second biggest economy in the world. Its leaders are a little worried though, because the economy is slowing down. It is still growing 6 times faster than the rest of the world.

One of the big messages that was talked about in the meeting was corruption. Mr Hu Jintao said the Party must work hard in the next decade to remove corruption from Chinese society. He warned that the Party could die if corruption continued. He said: "If we fail to handle this issue well, it could [be the end of] the party, and even cause the collapse of the party and the fall of the state." Mr Hu told Party members at the Great Hall of the People in Beijing that China had to change because of a changing world. He said: "We must aim higher and work harder and continue to [go after] development in a scientific way." He added the Party should "promote social harmony and improve the people's lives".

Role A – China’s old leader

You are very happy with what you did over the past decade. China is a much better country. Think of three reasons why. You believe the country should continue the same. You don’t like the new leader. His/Her ideas are dangerous and will end China. You think poor people must wait for a better life.

Role B – China’s new leader

You want China to be stronger. You think there are too many poor people who are unhappy. This is dangerous for China. Think of three reasons why. The country should make many big changes to help poor people. Rich people have to pay more to help poor people. You don’t like rich people.

Role C – A poor person

You have a poor, unhappy life. You have no money. You are angry. You have seen people in the tall apartment blocks get lots of money, cars, nice clothes, etc. over the past decade. You want change. Think of three reasons why. You want the new leader to help you. You don’t like rich people.

Role D – A rich person

You were a poor farmer once. You became rich because you worked hard. If someone is poor in China, it is because they didn’t work hard. You want the old leader to stay. You like him/her. If you have to pay money to poor people, you will leave China. All rich people will leave and China will be poor.
