OTHER CHRISTMAS ACTIVITIES

1. WHITE XMAS: Talk about which is better – a white Xmas or a golden Xmas (on the beach in a hot country)
2. BAH HUMBUG: Briefly explain the character of Scrooge. Brainstorm all the possible reasons why Christmas should be cancelled this year. Write them on the board. Students then talk in pairs about whether they agree with any of the reasons.
3. IT'S MINE: Either write the names of some popular presents on the board (iPod, Burberry scarf, latest video game...) or bring in some pictures of the latest offerings from magazines. Students have to convince one another why they should get the particular present. Attach the pictures around the classroom so students can walk around.
4. CHAT: Talk about the North Pole, Santa Claus, Xmas presents, Xmas movies, Xmas songs...
5. SANTA'S KNEE: Students take turns at being Santa and ask their partner what they would like for Xmas and why?
6. AN IPOD AND AN MD: Sing the famous Xmas song 'The Twelve Days of Christmas' with the revised lyrics below:
 - 1st day – an iPod and a PlayStation 3
 - 2nd day – two Chanel gloves
 - 3rd day – three soccer balls
 - 4th day - four teddy bears
 - 5th day – five gold rings
 - 6th day – six Barbie dolls
 - 7th day – cans of Cola
 - 8th day – eight Burberry bags
 - 9th day – nine mobile phones
 - 10th day – ten boxes of Lego
 - 11th day – eleven electric guitars
 - 12th day – twelve pairs of Levi's

7. SPECIAL RELATIONSHIPS: Talk about the special relationship between Santa and the children of the world, as well as other special relationships, like parent and child, teacher and pupil, soccer club and fans, hometown and me ... Brainstorm other special relationships?

8. THE REAL MEANING: Students retell the real story of Xmas in groups. Mix religions for better effect. Put the following on board as prompts –
Angel Gabriel star three wise men stable Mary donkey carpenter gold, frankincense and myrrh Bethlehem no room at the inn King Herod

9. OTHER CULTURES: If you have a multi-cultural, multi-faith class. brainstorm what Xmas means to different students.

10. XMAS ROLE PLAY: Assign each student a different Xmas character. Tell them to mill around introducing themselves and comparing notes on what it's like being who they are. Roles might include: Santa, a snowman, Rudolf the Red-nosed Reindeer, a North Pole penguin, the Xmas tree fairy, the Christmas turkey, any other characters related to your students' cultures ...

11. SANTATHON: If you really did want to ask all of the questions, form the students into teams. Ask quick-fire questions to each team in turn. They have 3 seconds to answer a question and get 3 points. If they answer the question within 3 seconds, they stay center stage for the next question, and the next... until they falter. If they do not answer within 3 seconds the same question passes to the next team.

12. SANTABATES: Choose questions you think might allow for interesting fun debates. Students brainstorm ideas in pairs/groups in preparation for a debate.
